

All legal entities interested in the market consultation and supplier event “A smart emergency call and response solution” are invited to register for the event till November 29 by e-mail lilita.liudanskaite@santa.lt

AGENDA

During the event, representatives from Santaros Klinikos will provide an introduction to "A smart emergency call and response solution" and will present the functional requirements for the desired innovative solution. In this event we give an opportunity for companies to present their proposed solution (s) to the system. If you would like to present your proposed solution (s) for the planned system, we invite you to express your interest by e-mail lilita.liudanskaite@santa.lt until the end of the working day on November 26. Delivery is scheduled for up to 10 minutes.
